Average daily attendance,	62	45	39

We all know Miss Goodwin, for she has taught in this room nine years. The summer attendance was so large that the school was divided into three parts; the older ones attending all day, part of the younger ones attending in the morning and the other part in the afternoon.

EAST SCHOOL.

Teacher, summer term, - Miss Kittie Gibbs.

Fall and winter terms, Miss Bertha J. Peabody.

	1st Term.	2d Term.	3d Term.
Number of weeks,	10	10	12
Whole number of scholars,	14	15	17
Average daily attendance,	12	13	14

Studies pursued: Reading, Spelling, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Geography, Grammar, Composition, History, Drawing, Physiology, Book-keeping, Algebra.

Miss Gibbs resigned at the end of the summer term to take a school in Vermont. Miss Peabody carried the school through with her usual good success.

During the year 14 different scholars came from Mason and 8 from Greenville. The financial arrangement was continued from last year whereby Mason paid 60 per cent and Greenville 40 per cent of the expense.

The whole number of different scholars registered in town during the year (exclusive of those who have changed schools) is 195; the average number belonging to the schools at any one time is 142, with an average daily attendance of 126. In addition to this number 6 scholars have attended the public schools in Mason, as follows: two scholars from Adron Winship's and two from Mr. Jennison's (the Elijah Davis place) at the brick school-house nearly or quite three terms, one scholar from B. G. Livingston's at the same school a few weeks and one scholar from Mrs. Blodgett's at the Mason Centre school for three terms, for all which we paid the sum of $40 tuition.

The south school has been temporarily closed for want of patronage. If all the scholars in the south part of the town could be collected, it would be advisable to open the school again in the spring. But the parents living in the north part of the old district No. 2 prefer to send to the village and those living on the turnpike prefer to send to the brick school-house in Mason. As the road now runs those living on the turnpike are so far from the south school-house that the transportation would have to be provided every day, if the scholars were required to attend school in our town; which would probably cost more than the whole tuition bill. So the prospect for the south school is uncertain.

At the 1888 annual school meeting your School Board asked for an appropriation of $250, to be used in the repair of school buildings, which sum you voted to raise and appropriate.

During the summer vacation the Board expended in repairs on the village school-house and shed the sum of $322.36, exceeding the appropriation by $72.36, which sum you are asked to raise and appropriate, in order to make up the deficit.

The school-house has had two coats of paint outside and one coat inside. Six new blackboards have been placed in the school-rooms and fifteen dressed over, making them as good as new. In order to make room for the new blackboards in the grammar school-room the chairs and desks were all reset. The chairs and desks in each room have been stained and shellacked. New sills have been put in under the south end of the main building and under the north side of the primary school-room. The shed has been repaired by putting in new floor timbers and a new floor, new boarding outside and painting.

The following scholars have been neither absent nor tardy for one term: Paul Clifford, Archie Nutting, Ellery Reed, Minnie Blood, Ella Hill, Grovie Stickney, Eva Blodgett, Myrtie Heald, Hattie Robbins, Perley Blanchard, Willie Doonan, Willie Haskell, Lena Greenwood, Charlie Douglass, Charlie Reed, Winifred Taft, George Cowdrey, Fred Marsh, Arthur Doucet, Jennie Blodgett, Eddie Lynch, Germin Jean, Mamie Munsey, Alex Beaton, Napoleon Caron, Celia Belanger, Ella Russell, Elmer Russell, Ernest Russell, Clarence Williams, Ernest Williams—one sixth of the whole number of enrolled pupils.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for two terms: Thomas Mullen, Fannie Blood, Nettie Lynch, Ethel Stickney, Cora Stone, Charlie Cowdrey, Katie Downs, Emma Bourgault, Ina Weston, Ada Beaton, Isabel Beaton, Beatrice Taft, Ida Ames, Albina Greenwood—one fourteenth of the enrolled pupils.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for three terms:

Willie Ames, Emma Ames, Annie Ames, Edith Benson, Adrian Hall,—one fortieth of all the pupils.

Scholars neither absent nor tardy for two years :
Lillie Ames, Irving Hodgman.

Josie Conley, a little miss not yet thirteen years old, has not had an absent mark or tardy mark against her name for seven years, during which time she has attended school some 1,200 days.

We recommend that the town raise $1,200 for the ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted,

C. E. HALL,	} School Board
